The annual convention, takes place this year from Wednesday, August 6 to Sunday, August 10th. Over 20,000 Star Trek fans are expected to attend.

Creation Entertainment founders Gary Berman and Adam Malin announced that, "We enjoyed tremendously our partnership with the Trekspects Mark A. ABOUT CREATION ENTERTAINMENT

Creation Entertainment was founded in 1971 by two NYC teenagers, Adam Malin and Gary Berman, when they ran one of the country's first comic book conventions. Much of today's fan convention landscape is built on foundations that Creation innovated while building safe and inclusive fandoms around iconic properties including Star Trek, Marvel, DC Comics, The X-Files, Xena: Warrior Princess, Supernatural, The Vampire Diaries, and Twilight.

Berman and Malin were persistent in their early belief in the importance of fans to movie studios and the longevity of their franchise properties and they became one of the first companies to license for fan merchandise and "official" conventions. They nurtured a new revenue stream for the acting community by creating fun spaces for talent to meet fans while generating income.
